Moonie Awards

This is late news but we haven't really made any announcements yet so here it is; This past August we held our second annual Moonies and we would like to thank Andrea Mallett and Ken White for hosting it at their house this year. The BBQ was great, the conversation intriguing and the night was fun. The winners of this year's awards were: (in no particular order)

Pat Jorgensen for "Doing All The Little Things For Vincent"

Andrea Westaway for "Blindly Following Bas Into The Breach"

Mark Wheeler & Tina Burrige for "Being The Best Damn Silent Auction People Ever"

Keith Brain for "Getting Us Some Great Wood"

Thanks to everyone that make Serious Moonlight Productions a true community theatre project.

Voice of the Zone Chair

As most of you know, this past three months has been a time of restructuring at Theatre BC. The BC provincial government made some drastic cuts to the province's arts groups' funding and along with the loss of our access to Gaming funds we also lost our executive director and most of our Zone funds.

So here we are back at square one, putting on community theatre with little funding but tons of enthusiasm. All three main clubs in our zone are active and we are beginning to attract other clubs to join us at Zone Festival, May 6-9 in PG. Luckily for us, we have years of experience doing theatre and enjoying each other's company regardless of our financial circumstances. Also luckily for us, we have a fund-raising vice-chair, Tashja, who has already organized a Zone festival fundraising Hoe Down Dinner, and I'm sure our other clubs have their own versions of FUN-raising to share. So come out, join up, have fun, get playing, and we'll see you at Festival in PG in May!
