

Workshop Plays

...a series of three productions selected from the Zone Festivals for a three-day performance, workshop, and second performance in a secondary venue - the Centre Stage Theatre in Summerland. Performances on 1st & 3rd days of each session - 3:00 pm curtain.

Friday to Sunday, July 4-6: Five Women Wearing the Same Dress by Alan Ball ...presented by Between Shifts Theatre, Squamish
From the Academy Award-winning writer of American Beauty and the creator of Six Feet Under comes a bittersweet comedy that uncovers the drama at an ostentatious wedding reception in Knoxville, Tennessee. Five identically-clad bridesmaids hide out in an upstairs bedroom, each with her own reason to avoid the proceedings below. At times poignant, at times rib-ticklingly funny, this touching comedy will ring true for many. Directed by Kathryn Daniels, Produced by Susan Hutchinson. Instructor: Fran Gebhard

Monday to Wednesday, July 7-9: Breathe by Tom Cowles ...presented by Bare Bones Theatre, Penticton

What happens when you put two guys together in a small space that have little in common and make them spend all night together five days a week for two years? You get a concoction of tension, drama, and sarcastic comedy that will make your sides hurt from excessive laughter. Bob and Carl are security guards working the night shift in a gated community for the elderly but things are not quite right this night. One of the female residents is streaking the grounds and skinny-dipping in the pool and it's up to Bob and Carl to stop her. Instructor: Garry Davey
