Theatre BC, the parent organization of community theatre in British Columbia since 1932, is proud to sponsor the Annual Canadian National Playwriting Competition

Competition Objectives

- To stimulate the development of new Canadian plays, including works from all cultural backgrounds
- To draw public attention to this development
- To provide access to a developmental opportunity for Canadian playwrights,
- To encourage the production of Canadian plays by professional and non professional theatre companies.

Categories and Cash Awards

Three scripts will be selected, one for each category:

- A. Full-Length category: $1,000 Cash Award
Minimum playing time of at least 75 minutes
- B. One Act category: $750 Western Canada Theatre Award
Minimum continuous playing time of 20 minutes to a maximum of 75 minutes
- C. Special Merit Category: $500 City of Kamloops Award.
An open category at the discretion of the Jury will be awarded to a script that is deemed worthy of the workshop process and with production potential.

Up to ten finalists will be selected by the Jury including the three Category-winners and up to seven Finalists. Each Winner and Finalist will receive a written compilation of jurors' remarks.

Written critiques (300-500 words approximately) are for entered scripts only and as requested at the time of submission.

New Play Festival

Through the generous support of Western Canada Theatre, the largest professional theatre company in BC's Southern Interior, and the City of Kamloops, Theatre BC presents the Competition's popular New Play Festival component in Kamloops in early April of each spring, featuring:

Re-working Sessions:

For the competition's three category winning scripts, these sessions include one-to-one script development with a professional dramaturge leading to 9-12 hours of working sessions with actors registered during this weekend event.

Finalist's Round Tables:

The competition's finalists will be offered a 4-hour session with a professional dramaturge and registrant readers, scheduled over the Festival weekend.

Public Readings:

The culmination of the event are the Public Readings of Finalists' scripts and the Staged Public Readings of the category-winning scripts.

Registered Auditors may sit in on the Re-Working, Round Table Sessions and Public Readings.

The Selection Process

1. Professional directors, actors and playwrights are independently and confidentially identified to serve as jurors (3) to determine up to 10 finalists. Scripts are sent from Theatre BC to each juror for each reading session.
2. Jurors meet for the first and only time once all reading is completed to select the winners and finalists, each of whom will receive a compilation of jurors' remarks.
3. Jurors' identities remain confidential until the announcement of results.

Announcement of Results

1. Official announcement of winners, finalists and jurors' identities will be made in early November 2009.
2. Winning and finalist playwrights will be contacted directly by Theatre BC and posted on the Competition website.
3. Presentation of Cash Awards will be made at the New Play Festival the following April.

Special Requests

1. Playwrights must submit one copy only of each entry. Do Not Send Your Original!
